President's Message

By DIANE KEPLEY, ASC President

THERE'S A CHILL IN THE AIR AS WE ALL CONSIDER OUR BLESSINGS AT THANKSGIVING AND GATHER WITH FRIENDS DURING THE HOLIDAYS IN DECEMBER.

It's at this time of year I like to look back at the achievements made by the American Spaniel Club and its members and look ahead to the progress we can make in the new year.

The year began with a successful Flushing Spaniel Show in Knoxville, and this summer we gathered under the Big Top for the Cocker Spaniel National at Purina Farms. We also hosted stand-alone agility trials. These events would not be possible without the dedication and hard work of our all-volunteer show committees. The ASC Foundation hosted several fundraising events to continue work not only on cataract research, but also on other research to benefit the health of Cocker Spaniels.

The new year will bring some changes. One of our most dedicated volunteers is stepping down from all club responsibilities because of her health. Please join me in thanking Jane Williams for all she has contributed to the American Spaniel Club. She has served in multiple capacities on the ASC Board and the ASC Foundation Board, as well as doing an excellent job handling all the planning for the Flushing Spaniel Show as Show Chair for ten years.

For the 2023 Flushing Spaniel Show, Assistant Show Chair Linda Donaldson is stepping in to handle the Show Chair responsibilities. I want to thank her and the entire show committee for completing the work Jane began earlier this year. We owe Linda and the committee a debt of gratitude for their work on the Flushing Spaniel Show.

The 104th Flushing Spaniel Show will be held Friday January 13 through Sunday January 15, 2023, at the World's Fair Exposition Hall in Knoxville Tennessee. In addition to the regular Flushing Spaniel Show judging there will also be several independent specialties hosted by the parent clubs of the other flushing spaniel breeds, as well as a Cocker Spaniel specialty.

When the ASC first reached out to the parent clubs of the other flushing spaniels in 2016 to gauge their interest in holding independent specialties during the Flushing Spaniel Show weekend, the goal was to expand interest and entries for all breeds. Despite the COVID pandemic and a reduction in entries nationwide at dog shows, we are pleased that the enthusiasm and participation for this show has grown in the past six years. Thank you to all those who have supported the Flushing Spaniel Show. I look forward to working with all of you in the future to ensure the continuing success of this special event.

Work is well underway for the 2023 Cocker Spaniel National. ASC members in Zone 5 are hoping many of you will join us in July for a Wild West Extravaganza! Polish up the boots and spurs and move your little doggies on down to Purina Farms in July!

As I've said before—without volunteers the ASC would not be able to develop, plan and carry out all our events and special projects.

We are looking for volunteers for some key positions.

Recording Secretary Jane Williams has reluctantly resigned from her position. We would like to hear from any ASC member who might be interested in volunteering to assume the role of Recording Secretary. The responsibilities include working with the ASC President on agendas for ASC Board and Club meetings; taking or transcribing minutes of all meetings; and providing Board members with any documents related to agenda items. After approval of the minutes by the ASC Board, the Recording Secretary also provides a copy to the ASC web manager to be posted on the ASC website. If you are interested in volunteering for this position, please email me at westhavencockers@comcast.net, or contact Corresponding Secretary David Roberts at ascsec2021@yahoo.com.

Member Club Support Committee Chair Genea Jones is stepping down from this committee for personal reasons. The committee has laid the groundwork for programs for our regional clubs that help them promote their activities. The Member Club Support committee is the result of the ASC's long-term strategic planning. As part of that planning, the ASC is also working on better communication with members, expanding the club's outreach to potential new members, and developing ideas for new activities for current and future club members. If you're interested in helping carry out this work, email me at westhavencockers@comcast.net.

Please let me know if you have any questions about these positions or any other volunteer opportunities.

Wishing you all the best as we close out 2022 and move ahead into the new year!

REQUEST FOR CANDID PHOTOS/VIDEOS

The AKC is compiling images for the Canine College Course on the Cocker Spaniel. The ASC is hoping that you may be willing to submit and grant permission to utilize exceptional images or videos for use in the Cocker Spaniel breed course for Judge's Education.

We are looking for pictures or videos that you may own that can demonstrate function, field work, versatility, sport participation, family/pack life, and temperament.

Forward high-quality images with permission to use directly to Kathleen Patterson at Caninecollegecandidsg@gmail.com.

Please send no later than January 3, 2023.

Treasurer's Report DECEMBER 2022

Submitted by BETH WILLIAMS, ASC TREASURER

Here you will find a summary of the 2022 Cocker Spaniel National Specialty held at the Purina Event Center in Gray Summit, MO. It is my pleasure to report that it was a success. We were fortunate to have such a hardworking and dedicated show committee.

Our 'Unrestricted Funds' include our checking account with Regions Bank and a surplus cash investment account with Fidelity.

The Little Cocker Who Could

By ELENA DUGGAN

IN A QUIET CORNER OF THE PURINA EVENTS CENTER ON THE FINAL DAY OF THE ASC NATIONALS, ONE OF THE WEEKEND'S MOST MAGICAL MOMENTS TOOK PLACE.

That afternoon, Cherry Pie, a/k/a Rowlett's Sakura Hime UDX5 OM3 VER RE, and her owner/handler Stella Rowlett wrapped up their OTCH (Obedience Trial Champion) title) while also finishing High Combined and High in Trial—marking a major milestone in the career of the diminutive superstar and her intrepid owner/handler.

What were the odds of this little Cocker, with her challenging history, rising through the ranks to become the #1 obedience Cocker Spaniel in the country? The odds were slim at best, but Cherry Pie's story is one of courage and determination and the love and dedication of her human. Their extraordinary accomplishments made Cherry Pie's induction into the American Spaniel Club Hall of Distinction a shoo-in in 2018.

As Jeanne Grim, co-chair of ASC's Top Dog Committee and keeper of the club's performance statistics, explains, "Cherry Pie is only the 13th Cocker Spaniel to earn the OTCH title since AKC introduced it in 1977. It is earned by placing against all other dogs in the class, and that is often very hard because smaller dogs like Cockers must compete and place against the Golden Retrievers, Labradors, and Collies. On top of that, Cherry Pie was Stella's Novice A—or first obedience dog. To take your Novice A dog all the way to an OTCH is an amazing achievement!"

Now consider that, at 12 weeks of age, Cherry Pie had been hit by a car in a super-market parking lot, resulting in a serious fracture to her femur. Her owner at the time made the decision to euthanize her, but Dr. Susan Min and Terrolynn Guiles came to the rescue and saw to it that the puppy had the necessary surgery and foster care.

Though Stella and her husband Jonathan, who live in Redmond, Washington, had always thought two dogs were their limit, they changed their minds when they met and fell in love with Cherry Pie at Terrolynn's house in July of 2010. She joined their household when the original adopter had to renege for personal reasons.

Stella had unsuccessfully tried obedience with one of her other two rescue Cockers, Louie. She almost immediately sensed Cherry Pie and obedience would be a perfect fit, and that belief was born out when the seven-month-old puppy made her debut in AKC sports with a qualifying score in AKC rally the same week she graduated from puppy classes. Before the age of two, she finished her Companion Dog title with a High in Trial win at the Rose City Cocker specialty. She completed her Companion Dog Excellent title in October of 2013 after two knee surgeries.

Stella wasn't even thinking about continuing on in Utility Obedience. "But, despite her green handler, Cherry Pie mastered the exercises so quickly," she laughs, "we just had to keep going!"

In 2015, they finished her Utility Dog title right before her fifth birthday. In 2016, she qualified for the 2017 AKC National Obedience Championships (NOC) as the #1 Cocker in the country and finished her Utility Dog Excellent title in January of 2017, which secured her induction into the ASC Hall of Distinction. But, sadly, injuries to both Cherry and Stella prevented their participation in the 2017 NOC.

Several vets told Stella the little dog's injury was career-ending, but Stella had her own ideas. She knew Cherry's courage, and so, after a series of stem cell treatments, the team resumed regular trialing, and Cherry repeated as top Cocker for 2017.

2018 and 2019 found the team sidelined by Stella's professional and personal commitments, and 2020 presented its own challenges, including COVID and a cancer diagnosis for Stella's other dog, Heidi. But Cherry did accomplish her UDX #11 and was selected as cover girl for Front and Finish magazine for her 10th birthday.

From Deb Sazma, ASC National Obedience and Rally, CGC, and Trick Chair:

It was my special privilege and joy to oversee the Obedience competition when Cherry Pie and her owner/handler Stella Rowlett accomplished their OTCH (Obedience Trial Champion title) at the American Spaniel Club show under AKC Judge James Comunale. Cherry was the 13th American Cocker Spaniel to receive this prestigious award! We are so proud of you!

The OTCH is awarded to dogs with UD (Utility Dog) titles winning 100 points and a first place in Utility B and Open B, plus a third first-place win in either class, under three different judges. When you earn an OTCH, you realize that you and your dog have exceeded your highest expectations. Your dog is now one of the highest ranked dogs in the country!

There is a special bond that exists between a person and dog. Training and competing with one's dog strengthen that bond as evidenced by Stella and her Cherry. Earning this title is an honor—it represents many hours of hard work and dedication, as the team strives for perfection. Cherry accomplished this at the age of 12 ½ years, the oldest ever for a Cocker. She was Stella's first Novice A dog and together they worked earning numerous obedience titles including UDX 6 (Cherry being the first Cocker to do this). They are currently working towards Obedience Master 5.

Stella and Cherry will be traveling to Florida in December to compete in the AKC Obedience Classic, and they plan to attend the ASC Show in 2023. Along with Obedience, Stella and Cherry plan to compete in Rally Obedience. We look forward to seeing them in the competition ring and wish them lots of luck and success as they strive for more wins!

In 2021, Cherry Pie competed as the oldest dog at the AKC Obedience Classic. So despite being more than twice the average age (5.2 years) of all 247 competitors, she finished in seventh place in Utility class. Her accomplishments that year would be heady for dogs half her age, including all-time best scores and multiple legs in UDX and OM. At the end of the year, Cherry Pie was ranked #1 Cocker by OTCH points by Front & Finish Delaney's Rating System and Front & Finish First and Foremost Rating System.

At long last, in 2022 the team was able to compete at the NOC—a year that also saw Cherry complete her OM2, UDX4, OM3, and UDX 5 titles. At the NOC, she qualified in every exercise and made the cut for the Top 50 competition—the first Cocker to do so in recent years—and finished #32.

This year, of course, was highlighted by the team's participation in and triumph at the ASC Nationals. Not only did they qualify all three days but won High Combined Friday through Sunday and High in Trial on Sunday. On Sunday when Cherry Pie sailed over the last jump, spectators cheered to celebrate the breed's 13th Cocker Spaniel OTCH. She is also the oldest Cocker to achieve this milestone at 12 years, 3 months, and 23 days.

The team did not slow down, as they went on to score more big wins in August and September and earned their UDX6 title—making Cherry the first Cocker to achieve this. They will cap the year by competing at the Obedience Classic in Masters Obedience in December and at Westminster in Masters Obedience in 2023.

Contrary to the belief of many, Stella feels senior dogs are “a joy to work with in obedience.” Of course not every dog has Cherry Pie's stick-to-itiveness. Stella is convinced the little dog's attitude has been a huge part of her success. “She has always faced life with courage and happiness. She truly is a merry Cocker and knows no strangers. She has transcended the fate of a rescued pup with a broken leg—and flourished.

And, above all, and most importantly, Cherry Pie is always smiling when she is performing.”

TRAINING

Cold Weather Activities

By KELLY LADOUCEUR, KLAD Cockers » kladckrs@gmail.com

MORE SPORTING OPTIONS FOR YOU AND YOUR DOG.

Although I'm writing this article in late October, when we haven't fully hit winter, I know that the cold, dark days are coming for those of us on this side of the equator. I don't know about you, but my tendency is to want to do less in the winter months. Unfortunately, my dogs don't have the same tendency; they want to do as much in winter as they do during the summer. This has forced me to find creative ways to burn my dogs' energy without having to go outside. I thought I would share some of the things I like to do with my dogs in the house, so that you can also tire out your dogs without having to venture out into the winter weather.

The first activity I like to do is nosework, in case my previous articles on this subject haven't made that clear. This is a low-cost, easy to set up activity that challenges your dog's brain and sense of smell at the same time. The majority of the dogs in my house are trained in nosework, but at varying skill levels, so I will start with the easier hides and work the "baby" dogs, then gradually increase the difficulty of the hides as the skill level increases (a hide is the scented cotton swab that you hide and ask the dog to find). If you live in the land of cold and snow, winter is a great time to work on perfecting your dog's indication (how they tell you they've found the hide) as well as working through the challenge of teaching your dog to ignore distractors (toys, treats and even people food!). These things can be done with a minimal amount of equipment, so set up is easy and fast. If you are training a dog in nosework (or have done so previously), you know that the indication requires ongoing maintenance so that it doesn't weaken or change into something you don't want, such as actively pawing or digging at the hide. If you haven't started teaching nosework yet—but feel like you might want to give it a try—you can hide a toy or treats around the house and ask the dog to search for those. Start off with simple hides, with the toy or treat in plain sight, and as the dog's skill level improves, you can make the searches tougher. I personally do not do a lot of food searches with my dogs, but they have been shown to be very effective at increasing your dog's drive to hunt for the cookie (or toy). If you have a dog that doesn't go wild for nosework, this might help with that.

The second activity that is great for indoor training is trick training. I've written an entire article about tricks and how to train some of the simpler ones, but the only limit with trick training is your imagination. I am constantly amazed at the tricks that people train their dogs to do. One of our very own (Katie Sharp) has taught her dog Ollie an entire workout routine—I am in awe of the time and skill it took to teach him all of the exercises and then to chain them together into one routine. Charlotte and I are currently working on putting plastic coins into a toddler's piggy bank, which requires a significant amount of skill and precision. Bowie's tricks are more like foundation obedience behaviours, but don't tell him that! He loves any kind of work, and the bonus is that I am getting great engagement with him, as well as cleaner exercises and straighter fronts and finishes. Some practical tricks that you might consider teaching your dog are to fetch the TV remote (always start with an old one that can be thrown out once your dog has mastered this exercise), teaching your dog to put away their toys and teaching your dog to help with laundry. Mine are always very enthusiastic about carrying my socks, although I will admit that it does occasionally turn into a game of tug of war before I can get the socks into the washing machine.

If you really want to tire out your dog, try some shaping. Shaping is the process of teaching your dog a behaviour in tiny little increments. Your dog basically has to guess what you want, and you tell them when they're right. It's the dog version of the "Hot-Cold" game, where a person tries to figure out a location or an item in a room, and you tell them when they're getting warmer or colder based on their proximity to the location or item. In this case, though, we're doing this to get the dog to do what they want. For example, I love teaching my dogs to hit an Easy button or a tap light. When I first start to teach this, I use a yogurt container lid on the floor and shape them to touch it. Initially they might just look at it or sniff it, and I click this (using my clicker—some people use the verbal marker yes instead) and pay the dog. Most dogs will immediately look at it again, and I might pay that another time or two. But once they've figured out that looking at it or sniffing it will pay, then I wait until they try something else to get the reward. What that next behaviour is will depend on your dog. If you've never done shaping, you might need to spend longer on step one, so they truly understand what they're being rewarded for. Once that is solid, you will wait and see what else they offer. Some dogs, especially dogs that are new to shaping, might just sit there once they've offered the look or the sniff, waiting to be told what to do. In this case I will do one of two things: I will reward them again for the look/sniff or I will wait for the tiniest movement towards the yogurt lid, mark that with the clicker or verbal marker, and then pay. We're talking possibly just a weight shift towards the lid, a look with the head lower than previously, or even a sniff where they might use one of their front feet to hold the lid in place. Remember that the end goal is the dog putting their paw on the yogurt lid, so ideally you will reward behaviours or movements that will eventually lead to that paw touch. If the dog is frozen, then that can mean that they're overwhelmed or really unsure about what to do, so I will pick up the lid, hold it behind my back, then put it back out, as if to reset the game. I find that Cockers tend to use their feet a fair amount, so they generally get around to stepping on the lid, or hitting it with their paw. For this I mark and give them a dog jackpot—10-15 treats in rapid succession, all while telling them how brilliant they are. Once the dog is solidly touching the yogurt lid, I bring out the Easy button and do some repetitions with the lid on top of the button. Then I remove the lid and wait for the dog to interact with the button. For a more thorough description of shaping, look up "101 Things To Do With A Box", which is often the first thing that most people shape. Because shaping requires a lot of brainpower and problem solving for the dog, it is very tiring for them.

Canine conditioning is a great activity for when you're confined indoors. Please note that I am not a veterinarian, nor do I play one on TV, so I recommend getting cleared by your vet before starting any kind of fitness activities with your dog. There are lots of fitness products on the market made specifically for dogs (FitPaws or TotoFit products, for example), but many exercises can be done without special equipment. Conditioning can be as simple as doing some stretches using cookies, or as complicated as exercises involving various pieces of equipment. Cookie stretches are a great way to limber up your dog before doing vigorous activity such as agility or flyball. With the dog in standing, I hold the dog's collar and hold the cookie right in front of the dog's nose. Slowly move the cookie to the right, to encourage the dog to look over their right shoulder. Then move it to the left, easily. Come back to the middle and give your dog the cookie. Get another cookie and use it to have the dog look straight up as high as possible, come back to the middle, then use the cookie to have the dog look down as much as they can. Walking backwards is a great fitness exercise and is something I prescribe to most of my clients, regardless of what their issue is. I teach it using shaping. I start with a platform that is slightly raised and a different texture than the flooring. I start with the dog's back feet only on the platform and pay for that position a few times. I take one step back, which should cause the dog to step off the platform with the back feet. Now wait. If they so much as shift their weight like they might take a step backwards, mark and pay them. Start them on the platform again, and take a step backwards, pulling the dog's feet off the platform. Wait again, for the dog to make any kind of movement with either of the back feet, then mark and pay that. As the dogs begin to understand what you're asking for, you will see them start reaching out with their back feet, looking for the platform. Gradually increase the distance that you ask the dog to back up to the platform. Backing up is a great way to increase or maintain strength in the back legs. If you're interested in conditioning exercises, there are a number of resources out there that can help. There's a book available with a variety of muscle exercises for dogs. It's called Gymnastricks by Carmen Mayer. That's a good place to start. Fenzi Dog Sports Academy has some canine conditioning classes that are offered virtually, or you can try and find a canine rehab practitioner in your area, to have your dog assessed and to get a personalized plan for your dog.

I hope I've given you some ideas for ways to pass the cold, dark days of winter. The real joy of training your dog is how the relationship between you grows. There is no ceiling when it comes to the growth and depth of your relationship with your dog—just infinite ways to make it better.

Happy training!

REGULAR CLASSES

Billie Hayes

She was born and raised as a country girl in Wilmington, Illinois. Even as a child, Billie owned a cocker spaniel and was involved in a rural 4-H group. Her interest in the sport of purebred dogs began in earnest in 1973 with the purchase of the foundation cocker spaniel bitch, CH Rinky Dink's Serendipity from Jean Peterson of "Rinky Dink Kennels." She was lucky enough, with the guidance of Jean, to breed a top winning and producing black/tan male named CH Chess King's Board Boss. During the 80's and 90's, he was certainly recognized as a dog who made a mark in this breed.

Billie worked in Veterinary Ophthalmology for eleven years, and then spent thirty-three years working for a large, human ophthalmology practice in the Phoenix area, retiring from the eye field in 2016.

After marrying David Hayes and expanding her interest to pointers, she has produced over 80 champions in the two breeds. Many of these were handled to their championship by Billie and often from the Bred-By-Exhibitor class. Now she enjoys her new project—a Papillon bitch by the name of CH Brevette Zero Sum Game!

After judging countless sweepstakes assignments, Billie began AKC judging in 1994 with her two breeds—cockers and pointers. Approved for twelve Sporting breeds and although not actively pursuing getting more breeds to judge, she enjoys judging these sporting breeds. Highlights of her judging career were the assignments at the American Spaniel Club Flushing Show and National Specialty in the past, plus many international assignments and cocker specialties from coast to coast.

Billie is a Lifetime Member of ASC, past ASC Board Member, and former member of the ASC Standards Committee. She currently serves as treasurer of the CSC Club of Arizona and is a member of the Scottsdale Dog Fanciers Association. She enjoys mentoring newcomers to our sport of dogs. Billie is honored to be nominated again to judge at American Spaniel Club.

Jacqueline L. Stacy

Jacqueline Stacy has been involved in purebred dogs for over 50 years starting as an exhibitor, then breeder, then all-breed professional handler and ultimately a much sought after AKC All-Breed judge. Under the Tamarin Kennel, reg prefix, she and her husband, Terry, have bred and shown Affenpinschers since 1998 and have produced over 100 champions, multiple Best In Show winners including the top winning BIS American Bred Champion, CH Tamarin Tug, who also was America's Top Toy Dog. Tamarin Kennel is a Platinum Breeder of Merit. Their dogs have been the foundation for several successful Affenpinscher Kennels that are active today.

She is a member of several breed clubs, including Pomeranians—as a life member—and the Affenpinscher Club of America since 1998. She has served as their Newsletter Editor, Board Director, and President of the Club for six years. She and her committee authored the ACA illustrated standard that was prepared and published by the Club in 2011. She is a member of the committee to create AKC's Canine College judges education and serves as the ACA Judges Education Chair. She is passionate about Affenpinschers and preserving breed type.

She judges all breeds and has judged spaniels at many prestigious events. She lives spaniels vicariously through her husband's love and experience with the breed.

Mariecel Torres-Young

It was 1994 when I attended my first dog show as a spectator. I wanted to see in person the red and white cocker spaniels that I'd seen on a pet magazine, as I was looking for a companion dog right after graduating from college. The ones at the show were more beautiful than the ones in the magazine. The breeder at the show was Joan Amelunxen (Aandant cockers). She was showing several of her red & whites which were grand-sired by CH Ward's Winterset and sired by CH My-Cyn's Camelot. I immediately wanted to learn more about the breed and I was lucky that Joanie was happy to mentor me. Many hours at her house each week, listening to stories of kennels and special dogs, watching ASC videos, looking at the Leader pages and learning to groom. I started showing a few of her dogs as a way to learn and I continued when I moved to Oregon in 1998. In Oregon, I made new cocker friends like Bill and Cindy Mixon and Lori Goudy. After taking a few years break and reaching out to Sharon Gerling, she sold me this wonderful tri-color girl to be the Conquest's first brood bitch

I was able to handle her myself through her championship and she became CH My-Ida-Ho Just BN' Gorgeous, Trinity. The next year, Marie Santos took her on as a special and she finished as the #2 parti in 2005 and a back-to-back Best In Show winner. Trinity's first litter produced the 2007 Best In Futurity winner at the Oklahoma National, GCH Conquest's Legend of the West. Trinity's last litter produced the 2012 Flushing BOS to BOV winner owner-handled by me, Ch Conquest's This Is It! HT-ROM. Conquest dogs have been BOV and AOM at the Flushing show and BOV, BOS to BOB, and Select at the National in the parti and black variety. Conquest parti and black variety bred dogs have also been multiple group, best in specialty, and top 5 winners.

In the NOHS ring, I've learned not only to perfect my handling and grooming skills to be more competitive, but I've also learned the joy of having such a close bond with one's dog. I have also found invaluable help and knowledge from cocker and all-breed professional handlers and traveling to shows in different parts of the country has brought many friendships that I cherish dearly. Perseverance in the face of adversity and staying positive have allowed me to continue breeding and enjoying the sport. I've become an AKC licensed judge for cocker spaniels. I enjoy judging our beautiful breed and hope my decisions can help promote the qualities that I believe should stand out in our cockers. Thank you so much to the American Spaniel Club membership for the nomination to judge at the 2024 National. It is the most amazing honor and I'm forever grateful.

Genea White Jones

My love of the Cocker Spaniel started when I was a child with a red & white parti sweetie, Andy.

I have shown and bred Cocker Spaniels since 1988 and produced over a 100 champions under the Ashwood or Ashdown kennel names.

I have been blessed to be successful in my breeding program, producing a multiple All-Breed Best In Show winner who was top-ranked amongst all breeds in 2014-2015. Two Ashwood/Ashdown cockers have won the national specialty and I have had a Futurity winner and many other nice wins at the national and local level.

I served on the American Spaniel Club board for a number of years as a zone director. I was the financial liaison for the 2013 National Specialty. I am very involved in my local cocker spaniel club, currently serving as President.

When it comes down to it, I love the Cocker Spaniel. I have willingly and passionately devoted a large part of my life to bettering it, both in the show ring and its overall health. As a new AKC judge, I would be honored to judge the 2024 America Spaniel Club National Specialty.

FUTURITY

Astrid Lawrence

Sunhaven Cockers began in 1981 when I went to the Hawaiian Kennel Club dog show in search of a cocker spaniel. I remembered a lady named Ada Forbes who had nice black cockers, and I thought of purchasing one from her. Ada had no puppies available. Then I saw a beautiful ASCOB cocker class which led me to purchase a buff puppy from Carole Miura (Streamside Cockers). While I didn't set out to buy a show puppy, I thought it looked like a lot of fun. My buff puppy became CH Streamside Sassy Samantha, who won Best of Breed at our 71st Cocker Club of Hawaii specialty.

Later I purchased a red/white cocker out of CH Juban's Georgia Jazz named Magic and later a tri bitch named CH Fox Nob's All About Eve (Eve). Their mating produced my first ASC Best Bred-By-Exhibitor in Show at the 1989 National Specialty judged by Mari Doty. CH Sunhaven's Ready And Raring—or Ready as we called him—was a loose lead, showy dog that loved to show. I will never forget that moment.

Many years later I bred CH Sunhaven American Ride CGC known as Bullitt. He was ranked in the Top 5 and won two specialty Bests of Breed. He was my heart dog and recently crossed the rainbow bridge. Bullitt loved to show in conformation, obedience, and agility.

I have been fortunate to have been mentored and given advice from some who are no longer with us or exhibiting such as Charles and Jackie Rowe, Gini Goetz, the Meinhart girls, Michael Allen, and Anne Rogers Clark, among others. Their words of wisdom have taught me about the purpose of the cocker, structure, and type.

• WHO IS ON THE BALLOT?

I owe much to them for trusting a newcomer to do right by the breed.

It is my hope that I too can be a positive force in the cocker breed and practice the diligence, intelligence, and helpfulness shown to me by the breeders who have touched my life.

I am a member of the American Spaniel Club, Washington State Cocker Spaniel Club, Bernese Mountain Dog Club of America, and the American Staffordshire Club of America. I would be honored to judge the Futurity at the American Spaniel Club National Specialty as puppies are the future of our breed. I would appreciate your consideration and vote.

Kerry Leonard

I have been breeding and showing cockers spaniels for approximately 15 years. Finishing several dogs both owner-handled and professionally handled under the Keto prefix and always with my husband Tom Plummer. I was born into an animal loving family where being involved with animals, either equine or canine, was a lifestyle. I grew up spending many days in the bird field or in the woods hunting behind our dogs. We were fortunate to have bred BISS BIF GCHB Keto Gallant Rodeo Romeo (Eddie) who won the futurity as did his mother CH Gallant Oh Lydia of the Circus. Eddie went on to be the #1 NOHS ASCOB, winning Best Opposite Sex to Best of Variety and Best Owner-Handled in Show at the 2017 National Specialty.

I have enjoyed judging several sweepstakes and plan to pursue my AKC judge's license, as well as, becoming more involved in our wonderful breed club as time allows. I am honored to have been nominated to judge our futurity, it would be a thrill to judge. Thank you for the nomination!

BEST IN FUTURITY - 2019 ASC FLUSHING SPANIEL SHOW
BLEUMOON'S RASPBERRY BERET

Bred by Michelle Mitchell.

Owned by Michelle Mitchell, Bart Hetrick, Esther Kostelnik & Beth Moore

Winning the Futurity at the ASC Flushing Spaniel Show has been a dream of mine ever since I started attending this show in Secaucus in the 80's. Every puppy entered in the Futurity is the end result of well-planned breedings by dedicated ASC members and are proudly exhibited there for all to enjoy. To place in the Futurity is an honor, to win a Variety is so exciting, and to win the whole Futurity is a dream come true!

On January 11, 2019, that dream came true for me, thanks to futurity judge Ellen Roberts and my wonder girl, Berry (GCHS CH Bleumoon's Raspberry Beret). I will never forget the moment Mrs. Roberts pointed to Berry and me for the win – this was one of the best moments in my life! This wonderful win propelled Berry and I on to a fabulous career, winning multiple specialties and groups and achieving the rank of #1 ASCOB Bitch three years in a row.

The reason why the Futurity is important to me as a breeder/owner/handler is because the Futurity is all about a breeder basically placing their bets on the quality of an upcoming litter. By nominating our bitches while still in whelp, we're saying that we believe in the quality of the breeding with the result sight unseen. All ASC members should feel that sense of pride in their breedings and utilize the Futurity to show off their breeding programs. One of the last things I'd say is that I'd love to see the Futurity be more supported by ASC members and work together to return it to its former prominence and prestigiousness.

Sincerely,
Esther Kostelnik and Berry

Meet Miss Blair: Beachstone's Queen Bee FUTURE THERAPY DOG

By JOYCE MCINTYRE, ASC THERAPY DOG COMMITTEE CHAIR, and LORY GRIFFEN, GUEST CONTRIBUTOR

Blair, a beautiful brown American Cocker Spaniel, arrived at her forever home with The Griffens—Jeff, Lory, Sawyer, and Morgan—on July 21, 2022. Since Blair's breeder, Karen Osper, had given her a great beginning and socialization in life, Lory knew she had the necessary temperament, personality, and confidence to become a therapy dog. Lory Griffen is a seasoned handler of multiple therapy dogs, and she began giving Blair more skills to improve her start toward becoming a volunteer therapy dog. Lory will take us on Blair's journey, as she tells us about Blair meeting her brothers—Sawyer and Morgan—adventures on camping trips, and adjusting to her everyday experiences with her family. Blair is attending obedience classes, and Lory is planning on more classes to prepare her for therapy dog certification.

the National Specialty in July 2022. Blair met Morgan and Sawyer outside by the car. With all the dogs being seasoned show dogs, she was just another one of the gang. When we brought her home, she quickly became another member of the fun family. They gently established their order in the pack. Sawyer, being the elder, retained his top dog status probably out of respect, Blair quickly became high middle, and Morgan is still and always will be the baby. Morgan and Blair are best buddies; however, Blair and Sawyer couldn't be closer as the parent symbols.

It took no time at all for her to get used to our routine and house rules which I truly believe is because of her previous years with her breeder. Blair is smart, extremely happy, inquisitive, well socialized, healthy, and such a sweetheart. She has quickly pawed herself right into our hearts.

Let's begin Blair's Journey!

—with Lory's responses—

Tell us about Blair's introduction to her brothers, Sawyer (age 8) and Morgan (age 2), as well as her first few weeks adjusting to her new home and activities.

Blair's introduction into our family was extremely easy. I put her crates up several weeks ahead of time with her special blankets, quilts and toys inside. The boys were allowed to go in to smell but not stay. The crates belonged to Blair. They got used to her name before they even met her. I know great breeding and previous socialization had much to do with her transition into our home; she fit into our family like she had always belonged. Great breeders prepare their puppies and adults to be all they can be, and Karen Osper certainly has done that with Blair. We met Karen on her way to Introduce us to this beauty you call Blair. Give us insight into her personality and her reaction to her new environment.

Beachstone's Queen Bee, aka Blair, is by MBIS/MBISS GCHP Beachstone's Blacklist CGC out of AMCH Silverhall Spun Gold II, bred by Karen Osper. After Blair settled into her home life with us, we took a three-week camping trip, including our dogs, from Ohio to Maine and back. She settled into traveling, hiking, camping, and visiting people. She enjoyed every moment of our travels and her new experiences. She even loves our trailer like her second home. She gets excited just like the other dogs when she sees the equipment come out for traveling. Her outgoing personality, happy smile, constant tail wagging, and kisses make everyone fall in love with her. I haven't found anything that seems to be new to her. She loves to play with toys, loves her crate, loves to sleep in the bed when we travel, loves to meet new people and pets, and is very adaptable to all situations.

What are some of the main reasons you felt she would make a great therapy dog?

Blair absolutely loves children; she is very kind and gentle with them. She will make a great reading dog. She will lay down beside us so gently with her head on us and look up into our eyes as if to tell us how much she loves us. She is such a sweetheart. She loves everyone, and I haven't found anyone or anything that seems to frighten or make her cautious. She takes everything on as an adventure. Noises do not bother her. Blair has the confidence of a great therapy dog. She has a true Beachstone and Silverhall attitude. She has a great pedigree behind her for learning and confidence. I have had many Silverhall dogs over the years, and she is an exceptional blend of both.

Blair is doing very well in her obedience classes now with Elissa O'Sullivan. She enjoys being with the other dogs and the new experiences of the obedience challenge. Maybe agility could be in her future; she has the legs for it!

Tell us about Blair's training plans, preparing her for certification to pet therapy.

Blair is now in basic obedience classes and will be enrolled in CGC classes next. After that she will take the therapy dog class in preparation for her certification. She loves her classes, socializing with the dogs and people, and the stimulation of everything around her. Blair loves life and everything it has to offer her. Sometimes the new lesson for the week may be a challenge for her, but once she realizes what I want, she grasps it. She becomes solid quickly. She is a very smart girl!

I have been taking Blair into stores, on walks where there are many people and children of different ages, through automatic opening doors, hiking, many different walking surfaces, and around different sounds. Nothing seems to bother her at all. This may be because of her breeding, her previous home with Karen Osper, and being with her two sons. Nothing seems to bother her. I haven't found any type of noise that bothers her unless it is a crying puppy. If that happens, she is all ears!

What are your future goals for Blair after certification and how will she fit into the role of therapy dog along with Sawyer and Morgan?

After she becomes a certified therapy dog, I plan to also continue her CGCA, CGCU, Rally and hopefully some barn hunt and Fast-CAT titles. She is a happy, fun girl, and I'd love to do whatever continues to make her happy. I know for sure that she loves all people and loves to bring joy, happiness, and a smile to them. Both my boys, Sawyer and Morgan, are certified therapy dogs, and I'm sure she would love to go with them as a team at select times and share the limelight at some facilities. She may want to be the Queen that she is and go by herself to see all her friends. Somehow I think with her personality, she may like to be the Queen wearing her crown!

Blair already has a couple of senior facilities waiting for her to become certified. She is a Queen with her people waiting.

In closing, Blair has the temperament that is necessary for pet therapy. She also has had experiences that have prepared her for the training she needs to certify for pet therapy. Basic obedience will become solid for her from the classes she is taking and the ones that Lory Griffen will enroll her in next. Her journey to pet therapy has begun, and with everyone committed to her success, including her breeder, her owners, and her two obedience trained therapy dog brothers, Blair's journey to certification will be smooth.

Thank you, Lory Griffen, for sharing this part of her journey with us. We will be looking forward to reading more in the next issue of The Bulletin. As an evaluator for a therapy dog organization, I recognize so many positive behaviors in Blair. She will be an excellent ambassador for pet therapy. Looking forward to sharing more of her journey with The Bulletin readers.

If anyone has question about training your dog for pet therapy, feel free to contact me at twinj@windstream.net. I'll be glad to answer your questions.
